

Delta Omega Honorary Society in Public Health
University of New England Chapter: Gamma Chi
Induction Policies

I. Timeframe

Student inductions into Gamma Chi will occur annually in the month of May, prior to UNE's Commencement Ceremony.

II. Student Eligibility

- a. Master of Public Health (MPH) students who graduated over the course of the closing academic year (the preceding August, the preceding December, or the upcoming May) are eligible.
- b. Students enrolled in the Graduate Certificate in Public Health program are ineligible.

III. Inductee Selection

- a. From the pool of eligible students, the top 20% with the highest grade point average (GPA) will be considered for induction.
- b. These 20% of eligible students will be asked to submit a one-page statement describing and reflecting upon an experience in which they demonstrated public health leadership.
- c. A committee comprised of GPPH faculty will review the students' statements and academic records, and will select half of the top 20% for induction, which is 10% of the overall pool of eligible students.
- d. These 10% of eligible students will be inducted into the UNE's chapter of the Delta Omega Honorary Society, Gamma Chi.
